Making My Own Luck with Goal Setting 🍀

My goal: ____________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________

I will do this by:
1. ____________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
2. ____________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
3. ____________________________________________________________

I will reach my goal by this date: __________________________________

If obstacles get in my way, I will:
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________

Reflections:
Did you reach your goal?

Yes--------> Awesome! Time to set your next goal.
No--------> What can you change about what you were doing above to reach your goal? Move the date for when you’d like to reach your goal and keep going!
